

The Value of Staying Invested

Missing the best days of market performance can have a considerable impact on your investments over the long run.

Missing the best days over 10 years

Starting amount: $10,000

Consider the impact of missing the best 10, 20 and 30 days on the value of $10,000 invested in Canadian stocks over 10 years. Staying invested can potentially translate into a better outcome.
